Consider the meeting agenda respectively

The Company appointed Inspectors who are external legal consultants to be responsible for monitoring and checking the vote counting during the meeting to ensure transparency and compliance with legal and regulatory references.

In case of disapproval or abstention in any agenda, the shareowner/the proxy must raise the placard for vote count. The Company officers will duly hand out the voting card and record the vote as stipulated in the voting card. Please fill out your registration number, together with authorized signature and immediately return to the Company officers.

On the agenda of directors' election, votes must be cast for individual directors, with the signature of the voter included. In case of disapproval or abstention, the placard must be raised so that such vote can be duly recorded by the Company officers. Upon completion of voting on this agenda, Company officers will collect the voting cards.
