

Notification of Personal Data Protection for the 58th Annual General Meeting 2023

I.C.C. International Public Company Limited (“the company”) places great emphasis on protecting personal information. Therefore, the company would like to inform you of how the company handles and protects your personal data in accordance with the law on personal data protection, as follows:

1. Collected, used or disclosed personal data

For the purposes of convening and attending the shareowners meeting, the company shall collect your personal data, which includes the personal data of proxy givers and/or proxies, namely name-surname, age, nationality, national identification number, passport number, securities holder registration number, address, phone number, email, signature, voice recording, still picture, moving picture, and other information deemed as personal data under law on personal data protection. Note that the company may collect your data from other sources, namely Thailand Securities Depository Co., Ltd., only as necessary with a means authorized by law.

In the event of identity verification and/or proxy, the company may receive sensitive personal information, such as religious information from an ID card. However, the company has no intention to collect such data. Therefore, the company asks the owner of the information to cover such data before submitting it to the company.

2. Objective of collection, usage, and disclosure of personal data

The company will collect, use, and disclose your personal data for the objective of the 58th Annual General Meeting 2023 or for its legitimate interest of the company or other persons or juristic persons.

3. Duration of personal data retention

The company will retain your personal data for as long as necessary for the objective stated in this notification. Suitable measures for maintaining data security are in place. If the retention period cannot be spelled out, the company will retain the personal data for an expected period by the standard of data collection.

4. Your rights as a data subject

As the owner of personal data, you have the rights as stipulated in the Privacy Data Protection Act B.E. 2562, namely the rights to withdraw your consent, request access to the data, request data changes, request data deletion, request suspension of data use, request data transmission or transfer, file a petition, and object to data collection, use, or disclosure.

The exercise of aforementioned rights may be restricted under relevant laws and it may be necessary for the company to deny or not be able to carry out your requests, e.g. to comply with the laws or court orders, public tasks, your request in breach of rights or freedom of other persons, etc. The company will inform you of the reason for the refusal.

5. Disclosure of personal data to a third party

The company may be required to disclose personal data to other persons or juristic persons or regulatory authorities, who works in cooperation with the company for the compliance of the purposes as mentioned in this notification such as information technology’s service provider, regulators or government agencies or by the order of regulatory officials.

Additionally, the company may find it necessary to publicize your personal data when required by law or the corporate governance code, including the minutes of general meeting of shareowners.
