3. Not being bankrupt, incompetent or quasi-incompetent
4. Has never served any prison term by a final judgment of a court for misconduct from fraudulent acquisition
5. Has never been expelled or dismissed from the civil service or from government organizations or agencies for fraud.

The Company's Board of Directors, as of December 31, 2024, consists of 12 members as follows:

The Directors of the Company are appointed and must possess the complete qualifications as well as do not possess any disqualifications as specified by the Public Company Act, The Securities and Exchange Commission and the Stock Exchange of Thailand. Directors must possess the knowledge, capabilities, extensive expertise, and experience that will be genuinely beneficial for the Company. They must also possess the dedication and be able to devote much time in genuinely discharging their required duties in accordance with their assigned responsibilities together with leadership skills and wide vision. They must also be a person with good moral and ethical standards and have a good track record.

The Board of Directors has prescribed the Board Diversity policy comprising individuals with diverse educational qualifications, professional skills, and specialized expertise beneficial to the company's business operations and aligned with its business strategies. This diversity is managed through the development of a Board Skill Matrix that outlines the skills, experience, knowledge, and expertise of each director. The policy imposes no limitations or discrimination based on gender, age, ethnicity, nationality, religion, or place of origin. This commitment to diversity is evident in the current board structure, which includes directors with diverse qualifications, knowledge, expertise, and experiences that enhance the company's capabilities and align with its business operations. The board size is appropriate in terms of both the ratio of male to female directors and the age distribution of directors.

The Board of Directors has assessed the diverse skills of directors (Board Skill Matrix) necessary and appropriate for the business operations, which include skills, knowledge, and expertise essential for business operations such as marketing, fashion, commerce, account, finance, investment, information technology management, organizational management, digital marketing, and legal affairs. The board should include at least three members with knowledge of the company's business and at least one member with accounting and finance expertise.

For details, please refer to the Board Skill Matrix on page 86 in this Annual Registration Statement / Annual Report 2024 (Form 56-1 One Report).

Progress Report on Board Diversity Policy Targets for 2024

Targets	Indicators	Actual Performance
1. Number of Independent	Directors at least one-third of the total board members, but not fewer than 3 persons	4 persons
2. Board Members with Knowledge in the Company's Business	At least 3 persons	10 persons
3. Board Members with Knowledge in Accounting or Finance	At least 1 person	3 persons
4. Number of Female Directors	At least 1 person	3 persons

The Board of Directors consists of 4 independent directors, or 33.33% of the entire Board which is more than the stipulated standard (one third or 33.33%) by the Capital Market Supervisory Board.

The Board of Directors consists of 4 independent audit directors with duties and responsibilities as stipulated by regulations of the Stock Exchange of Thailand with knowledge and experience in auditing the credibility of financial statement, including other duties as being concurrently on the Audit Committee.

The structure of Board of Directors and corporate administration has been established with an audit practice and appropriate balance of power of non-executive directors. There are non-executive directors, or 83.33% of the entire Board which is more than the stipulated standard (more than 66%) by the Capital Market Supervisory Board. In addition, The Board of Directors consists of 3 female directors, or 25.00% of the entire Board. Furthermore, none of the independent directors holds positions in more than 5 listed companies.

Furthermore, there are 6 directors on the Board who are non-executive directors with related business experience in industrial sectors that align with and benefit the Company's goals and strategies.

The Chairman of the Board of the Company is not an executive and is not the same person as the President and Executive Chairman (CEO), whereby there is a clear separation of power and roles between Board of Directors and the Management. Additionally, the Chairman of the Board also encourages every Director to debate and discuss as well as freely and fully express their opinions in Board Meetings by allowing adequate time.

In this regard, all the directors recruited in the past year possess qualifications consistent with the Company's business operations, including educational qualifications, skills, professions, knowledge and expertise, characteristics which meet the needs of vacant positions.

7.4.2 Remuneration policy for executive directors and executives

The Board of Directors oversees and determines the payment of appropriate remuneration to each committee member pursuant to the powers, duties and responsibilities and draws comparison to the operation levels in the same business sector.

The Remuneration Committee is responsible for considering reasonable amount of remuneration of directors. Criteria for consideration are based on the experiences, duties, scope of work, roles, participation, and responsibilities of each individual director and executive. The amount shall be proposed to the Board of Directors for consideration before submission to the Annual General Meeting of shareowners for approval.

Remuneration of corporate management is determined in accordance with criteria and policies stipulated by the Remuneration Committee, which correspond to the performance of each executive individually.

The President and Executive Chairman (CEO) remuneration is in accordance with the criteria and policy set by the Remuneration Committee, in the short term such as salary and bonus and in the long term, based on the company operation and performance and the President and Executive Chairman's (CEO) annual performance evaluation.

In 2024, the President and Executive Chairman (CEO) remuneration for Year 2023 consists of salary, bonus, pension and attendance fee amounting to a total of 9,349,000.- Baht.
